Ginarte Firm Helps Newark Community During the Pandemic

SERVING THE NEWARK COMMUNITY: Attorneys, office managers and paralegals helping the Newark community obtain much-needed groceries at the Ginarte firm's Newark headquarters during a Community Food Drive event on June 13, 2020.

Ginarte, Gallardo, Gonzalez & Winograd provided more than 1,000 families with needed groceries at the firm's headquarters in Newark on June 13, the firm said in an announcement. "We saw firsthand the countless families struggling due to the pandemic. They were waiting in endless lines to obtain food to feed their loved ones. The firm decided to take action, assisting those who need help the most. The Ginarte Law Firm will continue our mission of helping those in need so our community can grow and prosper for future generations," said founding partner Joseph Ginarte in a statement. Additionally, the firm has partnered with a local community nonprofit to provide 400 hot meals weekly at nearby locations, the announcement noted. "The Ginarte Law Firm continues to work with community partners to ensure vulnerable people do not go hungry and work tirelessly to support those we serve," Ginarte said in the statement.
